

ACLS Humanities E-book: an examination

ACLS Humanities E-book: an examination

Jocelyn Berger-Barrera (Brooklyn College, The City University of New York, Brooklyn, NY, USA)

Collection Building

ISSN: 0160-4953

Publication date: 4 July 2008

Abstract

Purpose

The purpose of this article is to inform the reader about the collection development principles, the use of technology, the history, and usefulness of ACLS Humanities E-book.

Design/methodology/approach

The approach adopted is a brief history, overview, and review of ACLS Humanities E-book.

Findings

ACLS Humanities E-book combines a carefully selected collection of academic monographs related to the humanities with a straightforward user-interface.

Originality/value

The paper offers information about the collection, most important, its collection development model and the considerable value and utility of ACLS Humanities E-book for researchers and libraries.

Keywords

Electronic books

Collections management

Digital libraries

Citation

Berger-Barrera, J. (2008), "ACLS Humanities E-book: an examination", Collection Building, Vol. 27 No. 3, pp. 118-120. <https://doi.org/10.1108/01604950810886031>

Download as .RIS

Publisher: Emerald Group Publishing Limited

Copyright © 2008, Emerald Group Publishing Limited

To read the full version of this content please select one of the options below

You may be able to access this content by logging in via Shibboleth, Open Athens or with your Emerald Account.

To rent this content from Deepdyve, please click the button.

If you think you should have access to this content, click the button to contact our support team.

© 2020 Emerald Publishing Limited

