

Title: California Light: 1900-1930

Author(s): Patricia Trenton, William T. Gerdtz

"...Through beautiful reproductions and provocative essays, this book focuses on nine painters who worked in the region for three decades from 1900 to 1930: Franz Bischoff, Maurice Braun, Alson Clark, Joseph Kleitsch, Edgar Payne, Granville Redmond, Guy Rose, Donna Schuster and William Wendt. Often called California Impressionists, these artists explored the depiction of light through color in styles ranging from smooth-surface Beaux-Arts realism through Impressionism and Expressionism." "...The essays, by a distinguished group of scholars, are among the first attempts to address how this stubborn pocket of independent traditionalism related to the mainstream of American art and to European prototypes."

9.25 x 9.75

ISBN: 0-940872-13-7

Number of Pages: 191

Number of Photos: 185

Number of Color Photos: 52

Catalogue printed in conjunction with the travelling exhibition of California Impressionist paintings organized by the Laguna Art Museum (now the Orange County Museum of Art) The text is accompanied by illustrations of paintings by nine of California's early plein air painters.

Available through The Orange County Museum of Art, 850 San Clemente Drive, Newport Beach, CA 92660. Tel: 1-714-759-1122.

Return to books

TFAO catalogues:

- American Representational Art links to dozens of topics in American Representational Art
- Audio Online a catalogue of online streaming audio recordings
- Collections of Historic American Art notable private collections
- Distinguished Artists a national registry of historic artists
- Geographic Tour of American Representational Art History a catalogue of articles and essays that describe the evolution of American art from the inception of the United States to WWII.
- Illustrated Audio Online streaming online narrated slide shows
- Articles and Essays Online substantive texts published outside of Resource Library
- Videos Online a comprehensive catalogue of online full motion videos streamed free to viewers
- Videos an authoritative guide to videos in VHS and DVD format
- Books sampler of general reference books published on paper
- Interactive media media in CD-ROM format
- Magazines a comprehensive list of paper-published magazines and journals

Links to sources of information outside of our web site are provided only as referrals for your further consideration. Please use due diligence in judging the quality of information contained in these and all other web sites. Information from linked sources may be inaccurate or out of date. TFAO neither recommends or endorses these referenced organizations. Although TFAO includes links to other web sites, it takes no responsibility for the content or information contained on those other sites, nor exerts any editorial or other control over them. For more information on evaluating web pages see TFAO's General Resources section in Online Resources for Collectors and Students of Art History. Individual pages in this catalogue will be amended as TFAO adds content, corrects errors and reorganizes sections for improved readability. Refreshing or reloading pages enables readers to view the latest updates.

Search Resource Library for thousands of articles and essays on American art.

Copyright 2008 Traditional Fine Arts Organization, Inc., an Arizona nonprofit corporation. All rights reserved.