Matthew Henry's Concise Commentary. 2:1-10 Evil-speaking is a sign of malice and guile in the heart; and hinders our profiting by the word of God. A new life needs suitable food. Infants desire milk, and make the best endeavours for it which they are able to do; such must be a Christian's desires after the word of God. Our Lord Jesus Christ is very merciful to us miserable sinners; and he has a fulness of grace. But even the best of God's servants, in this life, have only a taste of the consolations of God. Christ is called a Stone, to teach his servants that he is their protect (1 Peter Commentary). Lenski - The point of the figurative language is this: as a babe longs for nothing but its mother's milk and will take nothing else, so every Christian should take no spiritual nourishment save the Word. The imagery is beautiful and expressive. Hiebert observes that 1 Peter 2:1-3 - In classical Greek, the term "baby" (brephos) was used of the embryo, the unborn child, but in later writings it was extended to include the suckling child and even small children generally.
