Books and Book Chapters APA 6 recite Library. Library. recite.Â Book titles are italicised. Capitalisation - Capitalise only the first word of the title and of the subtitle, if any, and any proper nouns. Details about edition, volume number or chapter page range are placed in parentheses directly after the title, with the period after the parentheses, e.g., (2nd ed.). or (Rev. ed.). or (Vol. xvi). In the in-text citation, if pages are being directly referenced, include the page number/s after the year. Electronic Book. Chapters: Interactive Stories is an app with dozens of interactive stories for players to choose from, ranging from horror, to romance, to fantasy and more! You get to make the choices! Here is a list of all current stories that have been released in the game. Books under this category are written by Chapters Originals team with the exception of Terror Island, One of Us, and The Family Secret. They usually only have one chapter and several of them have multiple endings, ranging from 4 to 9 endings. A chapter is one of the main divisions of a piece of writing of relative length, such as a book of prose, poetry, or law. A chapter book may have multiple chapters and these can be referred to by the things that may be the main topic of that specific chapter. In each case, chapters can be numbered or titled or both. An example of a chapter that has become well known is "Down the Rabbit-Hole", which is the first chapter from Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.
