Bringing Yoga to Life is not a book about Yoga poses or how to achieve the perfect body. It is exactly what the title describes, a work on utilizing Yoga daily to learn who we are as individuals. Chapter by chapter, Farhi show us how we can cope with living in the world as part of the collective. It doesn't matter how you start Yoga or why, but do it and see where it leads you on the path to self-awareness and acceptance of others. Farhi presents the philosophy in easy-to-read language. Daily practice of Yoga will gradually result in the dissipation of such demons as addictions and fear. Life's difficulties won't be miraculously erased through the practice of Yoga; we will learn to live instead of drowning ourselves in numbness and unnecessary suffering. For most of the yoga traditionâ€™s history, aspiring students didnâ€™t start their yogic journey with asana (posture) practice. Instead, they learned the foundations of yoga, the yamas, and niyamas, before embarking on the rest of the path.
