Explore a turn-of-the-century Russian Mennonite street village on our 40 acre site. Taste traditional ethnic fare at the museum’s Livery Barn Restaurant, and explore a classic Mennonite housebarn and a fully operational Dutch windmill during our summer season. View historic and heirloom treasures from Poland and Russia to Canada, displayed in the Main and Gerhard Ens galleries, and find that perfect souvenir at Village Books & Gifts, all open year-round in the Village Centre. There is always something new to experience. The changing annual themes and temporary exhibits, along with new arte Altona Community Development Corporation. The Town of Altona believes in equal opportunity employment. From business services, agriculture, manufacturing and construction, to retail, health care and education, Altona’s job base is diverse and exciting. With ever-expanding business, industrial and retail sectors, a great job is always just around the corner. Local job banks such as the Manitoba Local Job Shop provide a quick way to browse available opportunities, post your resume and connect with prospective employers. If you want to continue your education or train for a trade or career before you begin your job search, the Rhineland Regional Alternative Education Centre is there to help. Quali Palliser Furniture Upholstery Ltd. is a furniture manufacturing company headquartered in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. Palliser Furniture is a family-owned company. Palliser Furniture manufactures and distributes upholstery furniture products throughout Canada, Mexico and United States. Palliser Furniture manufactures all types of upholstery, stationary, motion, recliners, home theatre, and chairs over 300 leathers and fabrics. Palliser's brands include Palliser Upholstery, Casana, Pinnacle, North Mennonite furniture is built by hand, everything fitted and sanded to perfection, with each builder taking personal pride in the quality of every piece of furniture built. Shop by Style. Contemporary. Contemporary style feature softened and rounded lines as opposed to the stark lines seen in modern design. Colours include both neutral elements and bold color, and they focus on the basics of line, shape and form. Shop Now. Traditional. Traditional style furniture originates from 17th century Europe. Rustic style furniture focuses on a natural and more rugged look, bringing out the natural beauty of the wood. It’s simplistic look and warm colours lend an overall homey & cozy feel to the room. Shop Now. Contemporary. Academic journal article Mennonite Quarterly Review. Mennonite Business in Town and City: Friesens Corporation of Altona and Palliser Furniture of Winnipeg. By Thiessen, Janis. Read preview. Academic journal article Mennonite Quarterly Review. Mennonite Business in Town and City: Friesens Corporation of Altona and Palliser Furniture of Winnipeg. By Thiessen, Janis. Read preview. Article excerpt. Abstract. Historians of the Mennonite experience have made scant use of the approaches of secular economic historians, particularly those of labor historians. The importance of such an awareness is revealed by the history of two prominent Manitoba Mennonite businesses: Palliser Furniture of Winnipeg and Friesens Corporation of Altona.