Abstract

Trog the cave boy has toys that should be lots of fun: sticks, rocks, and mud. But all he wants is a puppy to play with. He comes across a striped alligator and brings it home, dubbing it "Puppy!" His new pet causes a lot of problems for his family, like crying a lot and eating everything presented to it with a big crunch, including the family's bed and table. Trog does everything he can to soothe his unhappy pet. Finally, the alligator's enormous mother comes to retrieve her baby and brings him home where he is happy once more. Trog goes in search of a new pet and finds a "kitty."

A puppy's coat color may change as the puppy grows older, as is commonly seen in breeds such as the Yorkshire Terrier. Puppy refers specifically to young dogs, while pup may be used for other animals such as wolves, seals, giraffes, guinea pigs, rats or sharks.
